

Course Description

Course title:	Law of International Economic Relations
Neptun code:
Type (core, specialization, optional, dissertation, other):	core
Lecture/ Seminar (practical); hours per week:	2
Name and position of lecturer:	Mátyás, Imre associate professor
Contact of lecturer:	joggodfa@uni-miskolc.hu
Prerequisite course(s):
Language of the course:	English
Suggested semester: autumn /spring, 1-6
Number of credits:
Requirements (exam/practical mark/signature/report, essay):	exam
Course objectives (50-100 words):	The objective of the course is to highlight the current achievements on the field of private international International economic relations. Emphasis is laid on the legal sources of the subject (national, international, others), and the single cross-border transactions. One of the main subjects of the semester are the Vienna Convention on international sale of goods (CISG) and the INCOTERMS. With the help of the course, students will become familiar with te the conclusion and performance of cross-border commercial contracts.
Course structure:	Week	Topic
	1.	Subject of the Law of International Economic Relations
	2.	The sources of the Law of International Economic Relations
	3.	Legal unification onf the field of International Economic Relations
	4.	The contracts in International Economic Relations
	5.	The sale of goods CISG and the New York Convention 1974
	6.	INCOTERMS
	7.	Contracts for the transfer of technology
	8.	Contracts for international transportation
	9.	Contracts for international payment
	10.	States and international organizations as actors of international commerce
	11.	The rules of GATT-WTO
	12.	The rotection of international investment
	13.	Consultation
Required readings:	Vienna Convention on International Sale of Goods (CISG), INCOTERMS, New York Convention on the Limitation Period in the International Sale of Goods
Recommended readings:	International Economic Law, Hart Publishing 2008
Evaluation method:		